Research shows that students whose parents are involved in their education are more likely to:

- Adapt well to school
- Attend school more regularly
- Complete homework more consistently
- Earn higher grades and test scores
- Graduate and go on to college
- Have better social skills
- Show improved behavior
- Have better relationships with their parents
- Have higher self-esteem

Additionally, linking community activities to the classroom:

- Improves school-related behaviors
 - Positively impacts academic achievement
- Reduces school suspension rates

Please join us for our meetings. In just one hour per month, stay up-to-date and know what is going on at West Hollow. Special guests will come share information on events, clubs, and more. Have a question, concern or comment? Need more information on events? Want to meet other parents? Join us at our meetings. Have a topic you would like to see addressed? Let us know.
